

CÔTEAUX BOURGUIGNON EN BOLLERY

APPELLATION

Regional

VINES

Planted around 1985, this vineyard is just below the Clos de Vougeot on clay soil in the commune of Flagey-Echézeaux.

TASTING NOTES

Seductive fruity and floral aromas. Freshness on the tongue with a balanced structure.

AGEING POTENTIAL

Very pleasant when young, this wine can also be kept for several years.

WINE MAKING

The clay soil being cool, ripeness comes late, and the grapes are frequently the last to be picked. Fermentation is relatively short at 12 to 15 days. The juice is run over the solids or rack+returned to bring out and optimise the fruity character.

CELLARAGEING

1, 2, or 3 year old barrels are used to maintain the wines character.

CÔTEAUX BOURGUIGNON EN BOLLERY

